

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. THE HOLY SCRIPTURES IN VARIOUS LANGUAGES.

POLYGLOT,

Containing the whole and portions of the Scriptures in more than two languages.

- 1 BIBLIA SACRA POLYGLOTTA, Heb. Chald. Gr. et Lat. Philippi II. Regis Cathol. Pietate et Studio ad Sacro Sanctæ Ecclesiæ usum, 6 vols. folio, fine copy, in the original calf binding, 5l 15s 6d
C. Plantinus, excud. Antverpiæ, 1569-72

This was edited by the learned Montanus, and forms a splendid specimen of typography. As there were but 500 copies printed, and the greater part of the impression was lost at sea, copies have always been of rare occurrence. for sale.

The above contain the whole of the Sacred Scriptures, arranged in the usual manner with the Lexicon and Grammatical pieces.

- 2 ——— cum Textibus Originalibus et Versionum Orientalium Translationibus, edidit BRIANUS WALTONUS, 6 vols.; EDM. CASTELLI Lexicon Heptaglotton, 2 vols. together 8 vols. folio, ruled with red lines, fine copy, calf, 31l 10s Lond. 1657-67
- 3 ——— another copy, 8 vols. folio, the Lexicon not uniform, 28l ib. 1657-67
- 4 PSALTERIUM Græcum, Arabicum, et Chaldæum, cum tribus Latinis Interpretationibus et Glossis, folio, a very fine copy, french calf, 2l 2s Genueæ, 1516

“This Psalter, which is sometimes denominated the Genoan Polyglot, is of exceeding interest, not merely on account of its rarity, but as being the first polyglot work ever published with the languages in their proper characters; and containing the first Arabic ever printed. It is also remarkable on account of a note on Psalm xix. 4. In this note Justinian gives a very curious sketch of the life of Columbus, an account of the discovery of America, and a description of its inhabitants.”—Bib. Sussexiana.

- 5 ——— (Quincuplex), Gallicum, Romanum, Hebraicum, Vetus, Conciliatum, folio, fine copy, in the original stamped binding, wooden boards, brass corners, &c. 2l 2s Par. H. Stephani, 1509

POLYGLOT—CONTINUED.

- 6 PSALTERIUM (Quincuplex), Gallicum, Romanum, Hebraicum, Vetus, Conciliatum, folio, secunda emissio, vel. fine copy, 11 11s 6d
Par. H. Stephani, 1513

"The above title is printed within a circle of an engraved title-page, with the initials of the printer's name, H. S., enclosed in a wreath of flowers. Of the versions contained in this Psalter, the Roman is that of Jerome; the Gallican is that used in the Cisalpine Gallic Church; the Hebrew is from a copy given to the ancestors of Sophronius by a Latin colony; the Vetus is the Italic; and the Conciliatum the amended Gallican. The Italic version of this Psalter has been highly esteemed, from the editor having availed himself of a MS. copy, written in uncial characters, on purple vellum, which is supposed by Le Long to have been obtained from Toledo, by Childeric I., about 542. This is the first publication in which the verses of Scripture are distinguished by numerical figures. A second edition of this Psalter was issued in 1513: it has the same title-page, over the top of which is printed in capitals, SECUNDA EMISSIO. It is a splendid volume; and the editor, H. Stephens, calls this the more correct edition."—Bib. Susseziaria.

HEBREW WITH POINTS.

- 31 BIBLIA HEBRAICA et CHALDAICA cum PUNCTIS, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written in the THIRTEENTH century, 2 vols. very large folio, beautiful condition, gilt leaves, 63l

A magnificent manuscript, in three columns on each page, and, with the exception of wanting the last two chapters of the Pentateuch, is in the most perfect state of preservation. The first volume is entirely occupied by the Pentateuch, with the Targum Onkelos or Chaldee Paraphrase given after every verse, together with the Massorah parva written between the columns, and the Massorah magna in lines fantastically formed into various figures of animals, &c. at the top and bottom of each page. It contains also a list of all the Masoretical divisions, and of the different readings. The second volume includes the Prophetical and Hagiographical books. The name of the writer and date of the manuscript are indicated at the close of the latter volume in the following terms:—

“I Jehudah the scribe was employed to write these books for Rabbi Solomon Bar Samson of Badia in Bohemia, A. M. 5024 (A. D. 1265), the 27th in the month of the first Adar. The Lord open his benevolent treasure in his behalf, and justify him to enter Paradise among the just and pious, and make his children and his children's children to inherit it until the end of all generations. Amen! Amen! Amen! Selah!”

On the same page with the above notice are many signatures, in small Rabbinical characters, of individuals who sign their names as having read this copy through; also of various proprietors through whose hands the book has passed.

- 32 BIBLIA HEBRAICA et Latina, ac Notæ Munsteri, 2 vols. folio, in the original vellum, 1l 16s - Basil, 1534

This is the first translation made from the original text by those who embraced the principles of the Reformation. It has always been held in much estimation, and considered as eminently useful to those who are not proficient in the Hebrew language, for the translation is chiefly literal.

Plantin. 1566
35 BIBLIA HEBRAICA, 4to. neat, 1l 1s Apud Plantin, Antwerp. 1566

37 ——— another copy, 2 vols. in 1, calf, neat, 4l 4s 1587

In this edition, the serviles are printed in open types, and the quiescents in smaller characters above the line.

“Rare, much more valuable than the editions subsequently printed which are defective, this was superintended by the author himself.”—MS. Note.

 236 PSALTER, 18mo. 1s 6d - Bagster, —
 237 LE NOUVEAU TESTAMENT, 18mo. vellum, 1l 16s —

A fine clean copy of a very early edition (apparently unknown to Bibliographers) in Gothic letters, with a device of a coronet and heart surrounded by the crown of thorns, interwoven by a scroll, "Humiliatum et contritum corae, Deus non despiciet."

GERMAN.

- 248 BIBLIA SACRA GERMANICA, 2 vols. folio, in antique vellum binding, clean and perfect, 10l 10s - Strasburg, 1485

A very rare edition. Most of the wood-cuts in these volumes are coloured. As an instance of the oddness of the designs; Bathsheba is represented as washing her feet in a small tub of water, and Elias as ascending to heaven in a four-wheeled waggon. The condition of the present copy is excellent. It is in the old stamped vellum binding; the leaves in many places uncut.

- 249 ——— DUDESCH; the Bible in Saxon, or Low German, folio, a very fine copy, calif, 21l - Halberstad, 1522

An edition of the utmost rarity, and quite unknown to bibliographers, not being even mentioned by either Panzer, De Bure, Le Long, or Adler. It is printed in a remarkably bold type, and contains many wood-cuts used by Koberger in his German Bible, with others of a larger size: these have the date of 1520, and are very superior—the artist's monogram C. G. This version is of considerable intrinsic value, as it helps to elucidate many passages in the earlier editions of Luther's Bible.

- 287 Biblia Sacra Latina, small folio, fine clean and perfect copy, 6l 6s
Typis de Hailbrun et de Franchfordia, 1475

The first Bible printed at Venice. It is printed in handsome Gothic characters, in double columns, and is of very rare occurrence.

- 288 BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, folio, vol. 1. in the original monastic binding, thick oaken boards, covered with hog-skin, fine condition, 3l 3s
Typis. B. Richelii, Basil. 1475

The above is a very fine specimen of the early Typography of Basle, it contains from Genesis to the end of the Psalms.

- 289 ——— 2 vols. folio, half bound, calf, fine clean copy, 9l 9s
Norimb. Joh. Sensenschmidt et Andr. Frisner, 1476

This Bible has neither place or printer's name mentioned, nor has it either pages, signatures, or catchwords. It was attributed to Frisner and Sensenschmidt of Nuremberg by Hupfauer, and is of great rarity. It is not mentioned by Clement, De Bure, Santander, Brunet, or Dibdin; neither is it in the Catalogue of the Duke of Sussex's library, published by Mr. Pettigrew. Panzer, who describes it, had never seen a copy. Unfortunately, this appears to want two leaves.

As an early printed copy of the Scriptures, and as a specimen of the art of typography, while yet in its infant state, the present volumes are extremely interesting. A circumstance connected with this edition may be remarked as very singular; nine lines at the close of the 46th chapter of Genesis, and twenty lines at the commencement of the 47th chapter, have been left out, the deficiency has been made up by the Printer by the insertion of a slip, consisting of the half of a leaf.

- 290 ——— large folio, fine condition, 10l 10s
Impensis A. Koberger, Nuremberg, 1479

This edition has the peculiarity of having the Psalms entitled Liber Solliquorum, it has also the Epistle of Mesnard, and the Canons of Eusebius; and is so rare that Panzer never saw a copy, although he was a native of Nuremberg, and paid particular attention to the editions published there. The present is a matchless copy of a sumptuous book.

Basilea, Joh. Froben de Hammelburg, 1495

"Middleton, in his Biographia Evangelica, informs us that Reuchlin made Melancthon a present of a copy of the Bible which John Frobenius had printed at Basil, in a small volume. Melancthon always carried this bible about him, and chiefly when he went to church, where those who saw him hold it in his hands during divine service, believed he was reading quite another thing than what the time and place required of him, because it was much larger than a prayer book; and those that envied him took occasion from hence to make him odious with others."

"We have no hesitation in stating, that this is the identical copy of this sacred Volume, which Reuchlin gave to his pupil, Melancthon. The earliness of the writing on the upper part of the title-page fully warrants this assertion. It also contains marginal notes."

"No Protestant can behold this Volume without feelings of the highest veneration. It may be truly said to have sown the first seeds of the Protestant religion in the breast of this illustrious man, and of having been the instrument of that conduct he afterwards pursued in bringing about the Reformation of the Church.—KLOSS'S CATALOGUE."

- 295 BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, e sacra Hebræorum lingua Græcorumque, small folio, neat, 11 16s

Excud. C. Froschoverus, Tiguri, 1543

To the Protestant reader this edition of the Bible cannot fail to be regarded with interest. The history of its translation is given in the preface; from which it appears, that Leo Judæus, a minister of Zurich, was the first to commence it, and that, at his death, it was resumed by Pellican, assisted by Bullinger, Bibliander, Cholin, Gualther, &c. The book of Psalms, in this edition is called "Liber Hymnorum."

- 296 ——— ex Hebræo per X. Pagninum cum præf. et Scholiis Michæel Villanovani, (SERVETI) folio, 2l 2s

Apud Hugo a Porta Lugduni, 1542

This edition of Pagninus's Latin version of the Bible was carefully revised by Michael Servetus, who has taken the name of Villanovus from Villanueva, in Arragon, the place of his birth. He was burnt for the publication of it, in 1553; and all the copies that could possibly be obtained were burnt with him: it is, therefore, now very scarce.

- 298 ——— Vulgata, small 8vo. title and preface damaged, 4s ——— Plantin, Antwerp, 1574

This is the edition of the Vulgate which Father Simon observes, in his Critical History, the Divines at Louvain put forth after the Council of Trent, as considerably corrected and improved.

- 299 ——— secundum editionem Vulgatum, 2 vols. 8vo. neat, 2l 2s ——— Basilæ, 1578

The text of this elegantly printed edition, principally follows that of Stephens, of 1557, with all the prefatory pieces of the Stephens' editions. The wood-cuts, with which the volumes are illustrated, are done by the "Petit Bernard."

- 300 ——— cum duplici Translatione, et Scholiis Vatabli, 2 vols. small folio, calf, 18s ——— Salmant. 1584

A rare and esteemed edition. The versions of this Bible are that of R. Stephens, corrected from the edition of 1545, printed in a Roman type; and the Zurich version of Leo Juda, Theod. Bibliander, &c. printed in italic type and parallel columns. At the end of the second volume is the Inquisitor's license in his AUTOGRAPH SIGNATURE.

"This is the revised edition of the Sextine Bible; and from the preface ascribed to Bellarmine, it appears that Sextus V. perceiving numerous typographical errors in the former, contemplated a revision, which he was prevented accomplishing by his death: it was, however, executed with great care and attention by Clement VIII.—*Bib. It is more complete than any preceding one, and the notes are more copious; those on Romans, ix. are of great extent, and intended to combat the doctrine of predestination. - Saint Liberti died in the 8th century. The history of his life is an object of curiosity, as containing an account of the mission of Saint Rumold, the regionary bishop of Ireland, to Brabant, where his success, especially about Mechlin, was great. Besides other miracles which are recorded of him, he is said to have restored Liberti to life after having been drowned. Rumold was murdered by two ruffians, one of whom he had recently reproved for his wickedness. He is the Patron Saint of Mechlin: the sumptuous Church of St. Rumold still possesses his remains.
